CONSTITUTION

Preamble

Believing that a church consists of a group of baptized believers in the Lord Jesus Christ, united together for worship, fellowship, spiritual growth, witness and service, we declare and establish this Constitution. The purpose of this Constitution is to (1) preserve the liberties of each individual Church member, (2) preserve the freedom of action of this body in relation to other churches, (3) preserve and secure the principles of our faith, and (4) govern the body in an orderly manner. This Constitution takes precedence over and supersedes all prior actions, policies, and governing instruments.

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of the Church shall be Central Baptist Church of Bearden, Knoxville, Tennessee.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE AND COVENANT

The purpose of the Church is to know Jesus Christ as Lord, to grow as His disciples, and to share His love in word and deed.

The primary objectives of the Church for carrying-out this purpose are:

To be a dynamic, spiritual and evangelical body empowered by the Holy Spirit to share Christ with as many people as possible in our Church, in our community, and throughout the world;

To be a worshiping fellowship, experiencing the presence of God, recognizing His person, and responding in obedience to His leadership;

To experience an increasingly meaningful fellowship with God and fellow believers;

To help people experience a growing knowledge of God and man;

To minister unselfishly to persons in the community in Jesus' name;

To be Christ-like in our daily living by emphasizing total commitment of life, personality, and possessions to the lordship of Christ;

To contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry of the Church; and

To band ourselves together as a body of baptized believers in Jesus Christ, personally committed to sharing the Good News of salvation with lost mankind.

ARTICLE III – DOCTRINAL STATEMENT OF FAITH

The Holy Bible is the inspired Word of God, and is the basis of our statement of faith. The Church subscribes to the doctrinal statement of "The Baptist Faith and Message" as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1963. We observe the ordinances of the Church, which are baptism and the Lord's Supper.

ARTICLE IV – DISSOLUTION

The members of the Church may voluntarily dissolve the Church by distributing the assets of the Church in accordance with a plan of distribution whereby the assets are distributed to one or more organizations which are not for profit, which are exempt under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and which agree to utilize such assets for Christian purposes consistent with Article II, Purpose and Covenant.

BY-LAWS

I. CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

SECTION A – GENERAL

This is a sovereign and democratic Baptist church under the lordship of Jesus Christ. The Church membership retains unto itself the exclusive right of self-government in all phases of spiritual and temporal life of the Church. The Church will be autonomous and congregational in organization and polity, not subject to control by any other ecclesiastical or denominational body. The Church membership reserves the exclusive right to determine who shall be members of the Church and the conditions of such membership.

SECTION B – CANDIDACY AND RECEPTION OF NEW MEMBERS

Any person may offer himself or herself as a candidate for membership in the Church at any service or gathering or by private presentation to the senior pastor or other staff minister in any of the following ways:

2. Persons who hold membership in other Baptist churches, and present themselves by transfer of membership from that Baptist church;
3. Persons who make a statement of Christian experience and assurance of previous baptism by immersion from a church of like faith and order; and
4. Persons who share a statement of prior Christian conversion, but who have not been immersed, who request to be received by statement of baptism.

All candidates for membership shall be presented to the Church at any Church business meeting, and received by majority vote of the Church members present and voting. The Church shall maintain a current membership roll showing, separately, resident and non-resident members.

SECTION C – RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

1. Every member of the Church is entitled to vote at all elections and on all questions submitted to the Church in business sessions, provided the member is present or provision has been made for absentee balloting.

3. Every member of the Church may participate in the ordinances of the Church, as administered by the Church.

SECTION D – EXPECTATIONS OF MEMBERS

Members should strive to conduct themselves according to Christian principles as revealed by Christ in Scripture. Members are expected to regularly attend the worship services of the Church, to seek opportunities for Bible study and Christian education, to give regularly and systematically to its support, to participate in its serving ministries, to share the message of the gospel with our community and our world, and to watch over each other in Christian love and prayer. As volunteers in ministry opportunities, members are expected to be faithful to their commitments.

2. Transfer to another Baptist church;
3. Exclusion by action of this Church in accordance with Section F below;
4. Erasure upon request or proof of membership in a church of another denomination or faith; and
5. By voluntary request of a member, preferably in writing.

It shall be the responsibility of the ministerial staff to maintain an accurate roll of Church members, record transfers of Church membership and report all transfers of membership at regular Church business meetings.

SECTION F – DISCIPLINE

It shall be the practice of this Church to emphasize to its members that every reasonable measure will be taken to assist any troubled member. The senior pastor, other members of the Church staff and deacons are available for counsel and guidance. The attitude of members towards one another shall be guided by a concern for redemption rather than punishment.

Should some serious condition exist which would cause a member to create a concern for the general welfare of the Church, the senior pastor and the appropriate Church staff and/or leader will pursue every reasonable measure to resolve the problem in accord with Matthew 18. If it is recommended that the Church take action to exclude a member, an affirmative two-thirds vote of members present at a special business meeting is required; and the Church may proceed to declare the person to be no longer in membership of the Church. All such proceedings should be pervaded by a spirit of Christian kindness and forbearance.

The Church may restore membership to any person previously excluded, upon request of the excluded person, and upon profession of his or her repentance and reformation.

The officers of this Church shall be the senior pastor, the ministerial staff, the deacons, a clerk, a treasurer, a moderator, and the trustees, all of whom shall be ~~the~~ members of the church.

1. SENIOR PASTOR –The senior pastor is responsible for leading the Church to function as a New Testament church. The senior pastor will lead the congregation, staff, committees and organizations to perform their tasks according to the mission, vision, core values, goals and priorities of the Church. The senior pastor is charged to be true to the Word of God in preaching, teaching, leadership, and in lifestyle.
 - a. The senior pastor will be an ex officio member of the deacons, the trustees, and all organizations, committees, ad hoc committees, task forces, and any other group of the Church.
 - b. In the senior pastor's absence, the senior pastor shall arrange for a substitute speaker at all services. When the Church is without a senior pastor, a pulpit supply ad hoc committee, nominated by deacons and elected by the Church, shall obtain a guest speaker for all services needed until a new senior pastor is called.
 - c. When a vacancy occurs, the senior pastor shall be chosen in the following manner: A pastor search committee, consisting of nine (9) members, shall be nominated by the deacons and recommended to the Church for approval. Upon submission of any prospective pastor's name by a majority of such committee, the calling of such candidate shall then be by a two-thirds vote of the Church members present at a meeting that has been announced at least seven (7) days prior to such meeting.
 - d. The senior pastor may relinquish the office by giving at least three (3) weeks written notice to the chair of the Personnel Committee.
 - e. The Church may declare the office of senior pastor to be vacant in the following manner: A meeting of the Church shall be called upon recommendation of a majority of the Personnel Committee and the deacons. At least two (2) week's public notice of such meeting and its purpose must be given to the Church. The moderator for this meeting shall be elected by a majority vote of the members present, and must be someone other than the senior pastor. A secret ballot will be held at the meeting, and if a two-thirds majority of those members present vote for dismissal, the office of senior pastor will be declared vacant. Except in instances of gross misconduct by the senior pastor so excluded from office, the Church will compensate the senior pastor with not less than one-twelfth of the senior pastor's total annual compensation. The termination shall be immediate, and the compensation shall be rendered in a timely manner.
2. MINISTERIAL AND NON-MINISTERIAL STAFF – Ministerial Staff (Full-time, Part-time and Resident) – The ministerial staff shall be called and employed as the senior pastor and Personnel Committee determine the need for such offices and as approved by the Church. A written job description shall be maintained on file for all ministerial staff positions and for use when the need for a ministerial staff member is determined. Those ministerial staff members shall be recommended to the Church by the elected search committee or Personnel Committee.

- a. Ministerial Staff (Full-time) – When a vacant full-time ministerial staff position exists, a search committee composed of seven (7) Church members shall be recommended by the senior pastor to the Personnel Committee and the Church for election. Each search committee should have at least one Personnel Committee member, one (1) Finance and Development Committee member, and one (1) active deacon. The remainder of the search committee members should be individuals involved in or interested in the particular area that the staff minister will lead. The search committee will solicit, screen and visit candidates. After informing the Personnel Committee of their selection, the search committee will recommend the prospective ministerial staff member to the Church.
- b. Ministerial Staff (Part-time or Resident) –The part-time or resident ministerial staff shall be employed as the senior pastor and Personnel Committee determine the need for such positions as approved by the church. This position will be provided for within the financial parameters established by the approved Church budget. The Senior Pastor will identify and recommend potential part-time and/or resident ministerial staff to the Personnel Committee. If the position does not fall within an already defined role identified in an existing job description, one would accompany this request to be maintained on file. A candidate's resume would be presented to the Personnel Committee for review and approval. Upon approval, the Personnel Committee would then communicate a summary of the candidate's credentials and experiences to the church. The Personnel Committee and Staff would recommend, after adequate notification to the church, the candidate for hire to the Church at the next regularly scheduled business meeting or called meeting for discussion and approval.
- c. Terminations of Ministerial staff employment—When a position is being eliminated, either for budgetary or organizational reasons, the individual holding the position shall be given at least a two-week notice. A severance package may be negotiated by the Personnel Committee and the minister affected by elimination of the position.

When a minister chooses to resign, a two-week notice should be given to the Personnel Committee by the minister. Compensation for this period may be negotiated by the Personnel Committee.

When a minister is being removed from office upon recommendation of the Senior Pastor in consultation with the Personnel Committee, the minister may resign in lieu of termination. A severance package may be negotiated by the Personnel Committee if the committee deems this advisable. In matters of gross misconduct, termination shall be immediate with no option for resignation. No severance package shall be made available.

- d. Support Staff (Non-ministerial, Part-time, and Intern employees) – Support staff members shall be employed as the need of their services is determined, within the financial parameters established by the approved Church budget and in consultation with related committees of the church and the Personnel Committee. If the position does not fall within an already defined role identified in an existing job description, a new job description approved by the personnel committee and maintained on file. The senior pastor and staff ministers shall have the authority to employ and to terminate the services of support staff in consultation with the Personnel Committee. The ongoing supervision of support staff shall be the responsibility of the supervising ministerial staff member and the senior pastor.

3. DEACONS – In accordance with the meaning of the word and the practice in the New Testament, deacons are to be servants of the Lord and the Church. Their task is to serve in partnership with the senior pastor, ministerial staff and other Church leadership in leading the Church in the achievement of its mission, sharing the gospel with believers and unbelievers, and caring for the Church's members and other persons in the community. The deacons will serve the Church through deacon ministry teams. The number and nature of deacon ministry teams will be determined year by year by the deacons, based on need and resources. Every attempt will be made to blend the ministry needs with each deacon's interests, gifts, abilities and passions.

The ministry teams will be listed in a Deacon Manual, which will also include more detailed information, policies and procedures for deacon activities. The Deacon Manual will be adopted by the deacons, and changes will be voted on by that body unless changes may have a Church-wide impact.

The Church will be asked annually to submit nominations of members to serve as deacons. A Deacon Nominating Review Committee (consisting of the senior pastor, select Church staff, the deacon chair and deacon chair-elect) shall screen all nominees. The eligible candidates will then be asked about their willingness to serve and the final list of eligible and willing nominees will be presented to the Church for approval. Details on the proceedings are listed in the Deacon Manual.

Deacons shall serve a three (3) year term. They will then be inactive for a minimum of one (1) year before being eligible for reelection, unless they choose and are accepted to serve on their current team on an annual basis as a "second miler". Any vacancy resulting in an unexpired term may be left unfilled or filled with either a deacon in reserve, an inactive deacon, or by having an election, whichever is the most appropriate at the time. A deacon called upon to fill an unexpired term shall be eligible for election to a full three (3) year term at the time of the next election of deacons. An ordination service will be scheduled as soon as possible for any non-ordained persons elected to the deacon body. The term of deacon service begins January 1 each year. New, non-ordained deacons may begin serving prior to date of ordination.

4. DEACON EMERITUS – The honor and title of "Deacon Emeritus" may be granted by action of the deacon body on those deacons who meet each of the following:

 - b. Have served a minimum of twelve (12) years as an active deacon at the Church;
 - c. Have been recommended by a Church member; and
 - d. Have given their personal consent.

The Deacon Emeritus position is to be given in appreciation for long, unselfish, and exemplary service. Each nominee for Deacon Emeritus shall be reviewed by the current deacon officers and Deacon Nominating Review Committee in order to determine which nominees meet the general criteria or warrant special consideration or exemption. After proper review a list of Deacon Emeritus nominees shall be decided upon. Each nominee who gives his or her personal consent shall be presented to the deacon body for affirmation. These names shall then be announced to the Church and appropriately recognized in a worship service. Upon election, any Deacon Emeritus is welcome to attend any deacon body meeting or function to lend support, encouragement and prayer. Deacons Emeritus will not be assigned any team responsibilities.

5. MODERATOR – The moderator is responsible for presiding at all business meetings of the Church. It shall be the duty of the treasurer or Church administrator to bring to the Church at each regular business meeting an itemized report of the receipts and disbursements of the preceding months since the last report. The Church financial report and records shall be audited annually by a certified public accountant and the financial records shall be kept and preserved as a part of the permanent records of the Church.

The Church shall operate under a unified budget system, and all budget expenditures shall be guided by same. Reports to the Finance Committee shall be made on a monthly basis, and then made to the Church during regular business meetings.

The Church shall require two (2) signatures on all checks and the Finance and Development Committee shall approve the authorized signers.

- 8. TRUSTEES – Five (5) trustees, two (2) of whom must be attorneys, shall be elected by the Church. The trustees shall elect one (1) of their number to serve as chairman of the trustees, and president of the Church. The trustees shall be responsible for executing contracts and other legal documents on behalf of the Church. They shall also be responsible, with the approval of the Church, for the acquisition or disposition of all real property and personal property when the acquisition or disposition is outside the ordinary course of business of the Church. Routine acquisition and disposition of personal property in the ordinary course of the business affairs of the Church is not the responsibility of the trustees. Further, the acquisition and/or disposition of property having a value of up to 1% of the annual budget of the Church for the year in which the action occurs shall not require the approval of the Church; provided, however, such acquisition and/or disposition has the approval of the applicable committee(s) of the Church. The trustees shall also be responsible for borrowing money, subject to the approval of the Church.
- 9. CHURCH ADVISORY COUNCIL – A Church Advisory Council shall be appointed to review all major activities on the Church calendar, to coordinate ministries of the Church, and to give advice and counsel regarding proposed changes in ministry programs, new ministry programs and significant changes in Church operations. The Church Advisory Council will meet quarterly prior to scheduled business meetings and more frequently as needed. The Church Advisory Council shall consist of representatives of the Personnel, Finance, Weekday Education and Missions Committees, the deacon chair, three (3) at-large members representing different age and ministry groups to be nominated by the Committee on Committees for rotating three (3) year terms, the senior pastor; the Church administrator, the associate pastor, the minister of faith formation, and the minister of music and worship. Other Church ministers may attend as needed or requested. The Church Advisory Council shall elect its own chair from among the lay members among its membership at the initial meeting of any Church year.

The term of service is January 1 to December 31 each year.

11. TASK FORCES AND MINISTRY TEAMS – The ministerial staff is empowered to utilize task forces and ministry teams to aid in accomplishing the mission and vision of the Church. Task forces have a limited function and duration. Ministry teams can be ongoing groups that serve specific ministry needs and are formed under the supervision of a staff minister with consent of the senior pastor.

III. MINISTRY LICENSING AND ORDINATION

SECTION A – CERTIFICATE OF LICENSE TO SHARE THE GOSPEL

A person must demonstrate that he or she has received a call to vocational Christian ministry and that God has called him or her to share the gospel. The pastor and staff ministers are to determine over a period of time the authenticity of this call. The candidate's name is to be presented to the deacon body for consideration following affirmation by the pastor and staff ministers. Upon approval of the staff and deacon body, the recommendation is to be made to the Church for approval. Following Church approval a Certificate of License will be presented to the candidate. When affirmed by the ordination council, the service of ordination would then take place and an ordination certificate would be presented along with a Bible of the candidate's choice (as a gift from the ordaining church) would be purchased.
