Reference and Search Committee Comments

"We really didn't identify any weaknesses. Kelly had the specific career and life experiences as well as the professional certifications we had identified early in the search process."

- Louis Buck, Search Committee, Central Bearden

"My impression of Kelly is she exhibits 'thoughtful composure.' Even though she has extensive and successful experience in church business and pastoral care, she exhibits thoughtful composure in accessing a situation before moving forward."

- Donna Willingham, Search Committee
